Final Vote Results Announced for Amendments to the Election Code

NELSON HOUSE, Manitoba – September 13, 2013 – Nisichawayasihk Cree Nation Electoral Officer Joyce Yetman today announced final results of the September 12, 2013 voting results for amendments to the election code.

A total of 337 electors participated in the vote and there was 1 spoiled ballot. There were 213 votes cast in Nelson House, 77 in Thompson, and 38 in Winnipeg. Of those voting, 161 votes were cast in favor of the package of amendments and 167 votes were cast against the package of amendments. There were 9 rejected ballots. As the package of amendments was not approved by a majority of NCN Citizens who cast a ballot, there will be no changes to the Election Code (1998, E-1 as amended in 2002 and 2010). Copies of the official results and the current Election Code are available from the NCN Electoral Officer and on NCN's website (ncncree.com).

Nisichawayasihk Cree Nation is located at Nelson House, Manitoba, about 800 kilometres north of Winnipeg and 80 kilometres west of Thompson. NCN has close to 4,000 members living in Nelson House, South Indian Lake, Thompson, Brandon and Winnipeg.
